CHICAGO

COMING SALES

In deference to the expected visit to the Earth of Mr. Santa Claus towards the end of December, and following my usual custom of granting a much needed rest to my hard worked customers, I will not hold my sale XXVIII until after the middle of January.

In that sale will be found some of the Numismatic "good things," among which will be the entire collection of Fractional Currency (almost complete) formed by Mr. H. S. Williams, of Cleveland, O.

A study of the coin auctions of the past few years will show that the bulk of the desirable and rare coins are being purchased in the middle West. Chicago is today as much a numismatic center as is New York or Philadelphia.

I have held twenty-six sales without making any effort to obtain material by appeal or advertising; nor do I now ask for coins of the commoner sort, but can always use rarities or coins in unusual condition. My catalogs go to all dealers and active collectors in North America.

I shall be pleased to hear from those having collections or duplicates to sell.

BEN G. GREEN, 1533 MASONIC TEMPLE, CHICAGO, ILL.

Please enter the following bids at your Sale No. ....

to be held .... 190... . I will remit at once for any lots secured by you, for me, acting as my agent.

ENCASED POSTAGE STAMPS.

The Collection of

MR. H. E. DEATS, FLEMINGTON, N. J.

These pieces, once used as money, consist of an unused U. S. postage stamp framed in a circular metal case, the face protected by a layer of mica, and the backs containing advertisements of the period. The stamps used were: 1 cent, blue; 3 cent. red; 5 cent, brown; 10 cent, green; 12 cent, black; 24 cent, violet; 30 cent, orange, and 90 cent, blue.

The following collection was commenced a number of years ago, 65 varieties of which were purchased by Mr. Deats of the late Ed. Frossard, in 1890. These were gradually added to from various sources, until the collection became the largest and finest ever brought together. The largest number before sold was the collection of C. S. Wilcox, by the Chapmans, in 1901, consisting of 88, several of which were bought by Mr. Deats. All encased stamps are scarce, most of them rare, and many very rare. Probably a few in the following are unique, as it is now believed that some firms simply ordered one denomination each above the ten cent value.
